NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Mastering the data paradox: the key to winning in the AI age by Seth, Nitin

Penguin Business 2024

Acc No.: 52939 Call No.: 006.3 ISBN: 9780143465522

Summary: There are two remarkable phenomena that are unfolding almost simultaneously. The first is the emergence of a data-first world, where data has become a central driving force, shaping industries and fuelling innovation. The second is the dawn of the AI age, propelled by the advent of Generative AI, that has created the possibility to leverage the data of the world for the first time. The convergence of these two, with data as the common denominator, holds immense promise and the opportunities are boundless. This book provides us with opportunities to push our thinking, to innovate, to transform and to create a better future at all levels individual, enterprise and the world.

Enter prompt: navigating AI in the world's largest democracy by Bhattacharyya, Barsali

Summary: India, the largest democracy and fastest-growing large economy in the world, faces unique challenges when it comes to the epochal AI. This scrupulously researched book, which includes interviews with practitioners, policymakers and tech evangelists, answers the questions every Indian today is grappling with. Steering clear of utopian hype and dystopian gloom, this book provides a balanced and nuanced understanding of AI's use cases and impact on our lives, livelihood and society.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Ethical voices: practicing public relations with integrity by McClellan, Mark W

Business Expert Press 2023

Acc No.: 52903 Call No.: 174.4 ISBN: 9781637424186

Summary: From the ethics of crisis management, to what to do when your employer lies to you, to DEI failures and the ethics of social media, this book shares the good, the bad, and the ugly with candid insight. When people think about ethics failures, they typically think of Enron, Volkswagen, and other major scandals. Most communication professionals will not face these major dilemmas, but even minor issues can explode to ruin reputations and companies. Ethical Voices uses the PRSA Code of Ethics as a framework to bring ethical dilemmas to life. It provides practical guidance to public relations professionals on how to address specific challenges they will likely encounter. The book includes more than 100 real-world ethics incidents with advice from global industry leaders at companies including Starbucks, Lenovo, the TSA, the Federal Reserve, Harvard Business School, IBM, CDC, and the world's largest public relations agencies. From the ethics of crisis management, to what to do when your employer lies to you.

Digital minimalism: choosing a focused life in a noisy world by Newport, Cal

Penguin Random House 2020

Acc No.: 52922 Call No.: 303.4833 ISBN: 9780241737996

Summary: Minimalism is the art of knowing how much is just enough. Digital Minimalism applies this idea to our personal technology. It's the key to living a focused life in an increasingly noisy world.

In this timely and enlightening book, the bestselling author of Deep Work introduces a philosophy for technology use that has already improved countless lives.

Digital minimalists are all around us. They're the calm, happy people who can hold long conversations without furtive glances at their phones. They can get lost in a good book, a woodworking project, or a leisurely morning run. They can have fun with friends and family without the obsessive urge to document the experience. They stay informed about the news of the day, but don't feel overwhelmed by it. They don't experience "fear of missing out" because they already know which activities provide them meaning and satisfaction.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Digital wellbeing: recharge your focus and reboot your life by Velzeboer, Petra

Kogan Page 2025

Acc No.: 52912 Call No.: 303.4833 ISBN: 9781398617537

Summary: Digital detoxes don't work. Our wellbeing relies on finding a balance. Improve your focus and create healthy habits that will enrich your life with Digital Wellbeing. So much of our lives are now spent looking at screens, whether we're working on our laptop or checking social media on our phones. It's too easy to become overwhelmed by constant notifications and endless emails, leading to frustration, stress and burnout. In this ground-breaking book, leading wellbeing expert Petra Velzeboer draws upon academic research and fascinating interviews with global experts to uncover the practical insights that will allow you to improve your daily life, set healthy boundaries with technology and prioritize your Digital Wellbeing.

The life of Z: understanding the digital pre-teen & adolescent generation by Sengupta, Debashish

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Economic sutra: ancient Indian antecedents to economic thought by Deodhar, Satish Y

Penguin Business 2024

Acc No.: 52935 Call No.: 330 ISBN: 9780143467274

Summary: A general perception exists that ancient Indian literature on economic matters is fatalistic and an admixture of sacred and secular thoughts. Economic Sutra provides a comprehensive perspective on the elements of Indian economic thought leading up to and after the Arthashastra. Economic Sutra is a perception-correction initiative to distil the Indian mind in the realm of economic thoughts and behaviour as brought out by the ancient Indian authors. It highlights the broader spread of economic ideas both prior to and sometime after Kautilya, giving insights into the purpose, actions and vision of our forefathers.

Equal, yet different: career catalysts for the professional woman by Bhogle, Anita

Penguin Business 2024

Acc No.: 52930 Call No.: 331.4 ISBN: 9780143467755

Summary: Despite the growing number of women acquiring professional degrees, they remain under-represented and almost invisible when it comes to top leadership positions or decision-making roles. While women have proved beyond doubt that they are just as talented and capable as men, they are still held back by expectations laid down by society and a largely unconscious bias on the part of colleagues and family members. Besides grappling with external challenges, women find that their own mindsets are also shaped by similar conditioning. The reasons for women not making it to the top echelons of the business world extend far beyond the known ones like marriage and maternity.

Based on in-depth interviews with career women, leaders and experts on diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI), Equal, Yet Different identifies catalysts that can help women achieve maximum potential and fulfilment. This book will benefit all those interested in women's careers-women themselves, their spouses, bosses and even organizations looking to succeed.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Slip, stitch and stumble: the untold story of India's financial sector reforms by Singhal, Rajrishi

Penguin Random House 2023

Acc No.: 52945 Call No.: 332.2 ISBN: 9780670092116

Summary: Manmohan Singh's 1991 Union Budget speech made history by altering the course of the Indian economy, especially its financial sector. His measures took a broom to multiple cobwebs in this sector. What Manmohan Singh started over three decades ago is still a work in progress today, but it does raise some questions: Why did he focus on financial sector reforms? What has motivated continuing these reforms?

This book tries to answer questions like these while focusing on the evolution of financial sector reforms which, oddly, remain incomplete even after thirty years. The fabric of this sector has been fraying and initiatives over the past three decades have resembled hasty, temporary needlework; the patchwork, incomplete reforms make the sector further vulnerable to failure. Hence: Slip, Stitch and Stumble.

This book does not claim to present an exhaustive history of financial sector reforms. Instead, it examines the provocations behind some of India's big-ticket reforms while trying to understand the motivation of players who have been putting roadblocks on the path to progress.

Money, myths and mantras: the ultimate investment guide by Mehra, Devina

Penguin Business 2025

Acc No.: 52940 Call No.: 332.4 ISBN: 9780143466512

Summary: How do you get started on your investment journey? Is investment only about the stock market or should you go beyond it? What are the rules of investing and when should you break them? What are the strategies of successful investors, and should you follow them? Which well-known investment mantras are really myths? How can your brain sabotage your portfolio? An investment book like no other, it critically analyses different investing approaches and underscores what works and what doesn't. It helps readers not only learn about investing but also unlearn some of the commonly held beliefs and practices that often lead to wrong choices. Engagingly written by a thought leader in the industry, Money, Myths and Mantras includes frameworks, thoughts and aha moments for both the novice investor and the investment pros. This book is the distillation of three decades of analysis of the fundamentals of investing.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

The power of Gold: the Indian economy, trade and finance by Narayanaswami, Sundaravalli

Penguin Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52951 Call No.: 332.41 ISBN: 9780143476412

Summary: The Indian gold market is a multifaceted and dynamic sector, intricately linked to the nation's culture, economy and demographics. Structural transformations, including escalating GDP, an expanding middle-class and a youthful, economically engaged populace propel the growing demand for gold. Innovations such as digital gold and the growth of organized retail are transforming consumer behaviour, while regulatory enhancements are tackling issues in refining, recycling and trading activities. Nonetheless, challenges such as smuggling, infrastructural deficiencies and fragmented industry dynamics continue to infest the industry, as the stakes are quite high.

Gold has seen a massive resurgence not only in India but around the world. This book covers the most essential facets of the Indian gold industry. Through targeted reforms and improved market structures, India has the potential to harmonize its ancient veneration for gold with contemporary socio-economic ambitions.

H.I.T. investing: strong returns through high-impact investing leveraging technology by Joshi, Mahesh

Penguin Business 2025

Acc No.: 52933 Call No.: 332.6 ISBN: 9780143472056

Summary: At a time when the world is navigating ways to address key challenges, from climate change to financial inclusion and food security, we are also witnessing a significant change in the investment landscape.

H.I.T. Investing shares cases of eight leading impact investors—AC Ventures, Quona, Capria Ventures, Verdane, Apis, Future Planet Capital, SDCL, Lok Capital—and the results achieved by them globally. These investors have aptly leveraged the disruption power of technology to enhance their reach and impact. With in-depth case studies, each chapter covers the strategy and performance of the investor as well as their motivation behind choosing their area of impact.

A must-read for anyone seeking to understand and enter the thriving world of impact investing!

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

The business of investment banking: a comprehensive overview by Liaw, K. Thomas

John Wiley & Sons 2012

Acc No.: 52982 Call No.: 332.66 ISBN: 9781118004494

Summary: A comprehensive overview of investment banking for professionals and students the investment banking industry has changed dramatically since the 2008 financial crisis. Three of the top five investment banks in the United States have disappeared, while Goldman Sachs and Morgan Stanley have converted to commercial banking charters. This Third Edition of The Business of Investment Banking explains the changes and discusses new opportunities for students and professionals seeking to advance their careers in this intensely competitive field.

Chokepoints: American power in the age of economic warfare by Fishman, Edward

Penguin Books 2025

Acc No.: 52898 Call No.: 337.73 ISBN: 9780593712979

Summary: The epic story of how America turned the world economy into a weapon, upending decades of globalization to take on a new authoritarian axis--Russia, China, and Iran. It used to be that ravaging another country's economy required blockading its ports and laying siege to its cities. Now all it takes is a statement posted online by the U.S. government. In 'Chokepoints,' Edward Fishman, a former top State Department sanctions official, takes us deep into the back rooms of power to reveal the untold history of the last two decades of U.S. foreign policy, in which America renounced the gospel of globalization and waged a new kind of economic war. As Vladimir Putin, Xi Jinping, and Ayatollah Khamenei wreaked havoc on the world stage, mavericks within the U.S. government built a fearsome new arsenal of economic weapons, exploiting America's dominance in global finance and technology. Successive U.S. presidents have relied on these unconventional weapons to address the most pressing national-security threats, for good and for ill. 'Chokepoints' provides a thrilling account of one of the most critical geopolitical developments of our time, demystifying the complex strategies the U.S. government uses to harness the power of Wall Street, Silicon Valley, and Big Oil against America's enemies.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

India before the Ambanis: a history of Indian business, money and economy by Subramanian, Lakshmi

Penguin Business 2024

Acc No.: 52936 Call No.: 338.0954 ISBN: 9780670098576

Summary: In a one-of-a-kind attempt, India Before the Ambanis deepens the history of modern Indian business by looking at stories of individual enterprise, talent and vision to reflect on the larger milieu and context of business activity. Adopting a narrative non-fiction format, the book focuses on individual protagonists who shaped business in India, focusing largely on western India which by the middle of the 19th century had emerged as the major commercial, financial, and industrial hub. The book takes its cue from several pioneering studies on business and economic history, especially of India, to put together a narrative that is as much about individuals with fire in their belly, as it is about the larger context in which they laboured, innovated and dared to dream big.

The $10 trillion dream dented: the state of the Indian economy and the policy reforms during Modi 2.0 2019-24 by Garg, Subhash Chandra

Penguin Random House 2024

Acc No.: 52946 Call No.: 338.954 ISBN: 9780143467434

Summary: It is the aspiration of every Indian to live a good life. The measure of which is better health, education, housing and income. Only a developed economy can fulfil this aspiration of its people. India is a growing economy and dreams of becoming a $10 trillion economy. In The $10 Trillion Dream, the author provided the road map to fulfilling that dream. However, the performance of the Indian economy in the past few years seems to have shattered the $10 trillion dream.

This book presents a comprehensive and critical analysis of the performance of the Indian economy under the Modi government from 2019 to 2024. It critically examines the policy measures taken by the government and identifies the reasons why India can't become a $10 trillion economy by 2035. Foregrounded in rigorous research, The $10 Trillion Dream Dented is an unputdownable work that should encourage policymakers to rethink their approach to managing the Indian economy.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Behold the Leviathan: the unusual rise of modern India by Mukherjea, Saurabh

Penguin Random House 2024

Acc No.: 52918 Call No.: 338.954 ISBN: 9780143469490

Summary: In defiance of the stereotypes trotted out by yesterday's pundits, modern India's rise is both unusual and unexpected. It is unusual because some of the sharpest economic improvements are being observed in those sections of Indian society which were thought to be the most disadvantaged: women, oppressed castes and rural India. It is unexpected because of the widespread view. Until a couple of years ago, India's democratic construct was inferior to China's single-party state. In Behold the Leviathan: The Unusual Rise of Modern India, Saurabh Mukherjea and Nandita Rajhansa provide a gripping picture of how 1.5 billion Indians are combining to spectacular effect to create a range of social and economic outcomes which have no precedent in any emerging economy. For example, India now has as many chess grandmasters as the United States, and the expertise of its scientists has guided India's space modules to the dark side of the moon, a feat no other country has achieved. In this zeitgeist-defining book, the authors have also explored, through pathbreaking research, why the vast majority of India's companies are struggling to grow their profits even as a small minority of these companies have gone on to build globe-girdling franchises worth tens of billions of dollars.

The elephant moves: India's new place in the world by Kant, Amitabh

Penguin Random House 2024

Acc No.: 52948 Call No.: 338.954 ISBN: 9780670097449

Summary: Charting out a roadmap for India depends on a sound understanding of how India is unique and why it is shaped the way it is. The Elephant Moves unfolds a captivating saga, tracing India's economic journey through the lens of competitiveness. From unravelling economic history ("origins unveiled") to navigating global dynamics ("sailing the tides"), the book explores the forces shaping nations. It delves into the facets of many India's, unveiling opportunities in heterogeneity.

Envisioning India's path to a developed economy by 2047, the book addresses challenges such as job creation, policy implementation, and the imperative for shared prosperity that are met through guiding principles grounded in shared value, social progress, and prosperity. Providing a dynamic vision for India's diverse future, the book urges readers to embrace a narrative where India, rooted in regional diversity, shapes its global destiny.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Winning the people wars: talent and the battle for human capital by Johnson, Mike

Prentice Hal 2000

Acc No.: 52907 Call No.: 355.42 ISBN: 9780273641971

Summary: Winning the People Wars is a step-by-step guide to building and maintaining vital human capital in your business. The book explains the talent-market phenomenon. It shows how smart companies are learning new methods to find and retain talented people, by creating a business culture worthy of their investment. This is a practical, hands-on guide to developing and maintaining human capital in the fastest changing global job market ever seen.

Build an epic career: from the bestselling author of make epic by Warikoo, Ankur

Penguin Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52920 Call No.: 650.1 ISBN: 9780670099825

Summary: Build an Epic Career helps Gen Z and Millennials design a real-world path that matters. This practical guide blends money, growth, fulfilment, and purpose into a doable plan you can start today. Written for early-career readers and those considering a pivot, its tone is hopeful, empowering, and action-oriented.

Built as a practical, hands-on guide, Build an Epic Career uses a simple, repeatable structure: reflection prompts, clear steps, and real-world scenarios. The result is a learning experience that's engaging and easy to follow no fluff, just useful guidance you can act on. Whether you're stepping into your 20s, navigating a first job, planning a pivot, or chasing faster growth, the pace stays approachable and motivating. Beyond the framework, the book dives into core ideas like designing a career around money, growth, fulfilment, and purpose; answering the question "What will make you Build an Epic Career?"; and building skills, visibility, and networks while learning to negotiate and take thoughtful risks. Practical lessons, bite-sized insights, and reflective prompts keep you moving toward real progress without overwhelming you.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Play to potential: lead a full life, become the best you by Jayaraman, Deepa

Penguin Random House 2024

Acc No.: 52943 Call No.: 650.1 ISBN: 9780670099986

Summary: Play to Potential offers a refreshing exploration of human potential, emphasizing discovery through play rather than work. Deepak Jayaraman weaves insights from his eponymous podcast, his coaching work and his lived experience to share a powerful yet simple framework (FLAVOUR) that can act as a guide to navigate the pulls and pressures of life.

This book is a guide to living a fulfilled life, integrating family, aspirations, value creation, and deep relationships. It transcends traditional career advice, providing actionable insights for personal growth and fulfilment.

While there are many books that act as a North Star for people to navigate their journey, this book strives to be a torch light that can show people the way through the imperfections and the messiness to lead a full life and unlock their human potential.

Making hybrid working work: a practical guide for business success by Cookson, Gary

Kogan Page 2025

Acc No.: 52915 Call No.: 650.1 ISBN: 9781398619326

Summary: Hybrid work is here to stay but we haven't got it right yet. To be truly effective, hybrid working must form part of the overall business strategy and work, organizational structures and teams must be designed with hybrid in mind. Making Hybrid Working Work is a practical book for senior business practitioners and people professionals wanting to ensure that hybrid working works for their people and their business. With guidance on leading, managing and developing hybrid workers, this book will help you embed hybrid working into your organization design. This book explores what hybrid means for your office real estate, how to choose the right technology for hybrid working and how to ensure you're only investing in automating the correct things. It discusses how to use data to take an evidence-based approach to solving problems in a hybrid organization and how you can support learning for hybrid workers, build a learning culture and prioritize performance, not location.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Catalyst: the ultimate strategies on how to win at work and in life by Venkatesan, Chandramouli

Penguin Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52923 Call No.: 650.13 ISBN: 9780143442479

Summary: A good job, hard work, IQ, EQ, good communication skills—these are all ingredients for a successful life. The presence of these elements alone, however, does not guarantee success. To convert them into long-term success, you need certain stimuli which precipitate or accelerate your growth. This robustly effective book identifies the various catalysts that you can cultivate and how you can leverage them to propel yourself in your work and life.

Accessible, engaging and easy to follow, and written by someone who has experienced all this in real life and not in theory, Catalyst will arm you with the right tools to succeed at your work place and get the most out of every moment, every day.

Transform: the ultimate guide to leader and manager by Venkatesan, Chandramouli

Penguin Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52925 Call No.: 650.13 ISBN: 9780143476740

Summary: Transform focuses on people management, which the author demonstrates is a very important pillar of success. That is because leadership and managing are the means, while the end impact is what they do to people.

The book is divided into four sections. The first introduces you to the core concepts of leading and managing, and present a series of exercises to open your mind and make you more self-aware as a leader and manager. The second section focuses on helping you become great at managing, with a direct focus on your teams. The third section focuses on becoming great at leading-leading by doing and leading by being. The final section will help you create action plans, and help you develop a practical and implementable plan towards becoming a great leader and manager.

Insightful and practical, Transform is a comprehensive book on leadership and management which covers all important concepts while giving practical implementation techniques for each.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Get better at getting better by Venkatesan, Chandramouli

Penguin Random House 2019

Acc No.: 52924 Call No.: 650.13 ISBN: 9780143476757

Summary: What makes people succeed? Why do some people succeed, while others struggle despite working hard? This book is based on the insight that success is not about how good you are but how powerful a model you have to improve how good you are. Chandramouli Venkatesan calls it the get-better model, or gbm. Successful people are those who are able to build a powerful gbm to continuously improve themselves, and this book will show you how to do it. A gbm is made up of four key components and these must be practised deliberately for getting better-getting better by yourself; getting better by leveraging others; making others get better; and making and implementing a get-better plan. This powerful and life-changing book thus shows how you can constantly get better to unlock your potential at work and in life.

From unknown to unforgettable: stories and strategies to transform your start-up into a trustworthy brand by Pamnani, Harsh

Penguin Business 2024

Acc No.: 52932 Call No.: 651.5042 ISBN: 9780143463962

Summary: Transforming a product or service into a trustworthy brand is key to standing out in an insanely crowded marketplace. While extensive branding literature exists on international brands, there is a scarcity of the same on Indian brands, especially the new-age ones. India's diverse and evolving market presents unique challenges. What works in developed markets like America may not work in India. Additionally, the obstacles and limitations faced by start-ups differ significantly from those encountered by established corporations. Consequently, the literature on established Indian brands may not be highly relevant in the rapidly evolving world of start-ups.

If you want to understand how a start-up can transform into an iconic brand in India's diverse, crowded and ever-changing market, this book, a goldmine of strategies and stories, you must read.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

Doglapan: the hard truth about life and start-ups by Grover, Ashneer

Penguin Random House 2022

Acc No.: 52927 Call No.: 651.5042 ISBN: 9780143467823

Summary: A young boy with a 'refugee' tag growing up in Delhi's Malviya Nagar outpaces his circumstances by becoming a rank-holder at the pinnacle of academic excellence in India-IIT Delhi. He goes on to do an MBA from the hallowed halls of IIM Ahmedabad, builds a career as an investment banker at Kotak Investment Banking and AmEx, and is pivotal in the making of two unicorns-Grofers, as CFO, and BharatPe, as co-founder.

As a judge on the popular TV show Shark Tank India, Ashneer becomes a household name even as his life turns upside down. Controversy, media spotlight, garrulous social media chatter descends, making it difficult to distinguish fact from fiction.

The Earnicorns: stories of rare profitable unicorns Naukri.com, Zerodha, Dream11, Zoho by Nath, Dhruv

Penguin Random House 2024

Acc No.: 52928 Call No.: 651.5042 ISBN: 9780143468103

Summary: It is an accepted fact that Internet-related businesses are largely loss making. Dhruv Nath uncovers the secrets of four highly respected Internet giants which defy this trend boldly. The book narrates the story of four market leaders: Naukri.com, Zerodha, Zoho and Dream11, and how these companies managed to become profitable and stay that way. These are stories about phenomenal companies and their equally phenomenal founders. How Zoho transformed rural Tamil Nadu, by recruiting young boys and girls who could not afford to go to a decent college. And nurturing them into becoming star programmers. Nithin Kamath, the outstandingly humble founder of Zerodha, who shocked the nation by charging absolutely no brokerage from investors. Sanjeev Bikhchandani, who started Naukri.com from the servant's quarters above his father's garage, using second-hand computers and furniture. And subsequently, grew the business to a point where they have an unbelievable 70 per cent share of the market for white-collar jobs.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

The day the chariot moved: how India grows at the grassroots by Bagchi, Subrot

Penguin Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52947 Call No.: 651.5042 ISBN: 9780143471257

Summary: Subroto Bagchi uses his crossover experience from being an acknowledged leader of the Indian information technology (IT) industry to working full-time with the Government of Odisha in the rank of a cabinet minister, on a mission mode, to set up one of the stellar success stories of skill development in India. A bestselling author of several books, Bagchi uses his keen observation and experience to present stories of how the government works, of leadership at the bottom of the pyramid and the nature of transformational change in established systems. Along the way, he shows you the many facets of India that you have perhaps never seen before.

The Day the Chariot Moved is a tribute to people who make permanent change happen in one lifetime. A unique book on the imperatives for institutional leadership that is relevant across sectors, it humanizes the development agenda for policymakers in the government. It makes change agents from the social sector rethink their conventional approach and makes corporate leaders understand the complexities of making large-scale change.

Start-ups of Bharat: stories of India's million-dollar founders under thirty by Arora, Aditya

Penguin Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52952 Call No.: 658.11 ISBN: 9780143467380

Summary: India has produced thousands of startups and several unicorns, who have created millions of jobs. However, more jobs are needed to accommodate the country's rising population. So what is the solution? We need more startups in the country. Startups of Bharat offers much-needed guidance on embracing entrepreneurship. Using case studies such as Physics Wallah, BharatPe and many others, it provides a ringside view of a founder's journey—from ideation to problem-solving to scaling.

The book includes the RISING framework, an original model created by the authors to help readers grasp and apply key learnings. Since each chapter in the book is distinct and self-contained, readers can choose where to start according to their needs or interests.

The world is your office: how work from anywhere boosts talent, productivity and innovation by Choudhury, Prithwiraj

Harvard Business Review Press 2025

Acc No.: 52900 Call No.: 658.3123 ISBN: 9781647824716

Summary: A research-based deep dive into a growing phenomenon--companies allowing employees to work from anywhere--and how those who adopt this model can boost talent, innovation, and productivity. As the debate around remote versus in-office work rages on, leaders in a wide range of industries continue to implement radically flexible work practices, allowing most, if not all, of their employees to work from anywhere. Why? They understand that geographic flexibility offers a competitive advantage: the ability to attract and retain top talent globally. In The World Is Your Office, Harvard Business School professor Prithwiraj Choudhury, who has been studying this phenomenon for over a decade, takes readers inside the trailblazing companies that are going all-in on work-from-anywhere (WFA) policies. From start-ups and non-profits to government agencies and large corporations, Choudhury's research shows why and how these organizations and their employees are benefiting.

Human at work: arm yourself to thrive in a fast-changing workplace by Lobo, Richard

Penguin Business 2024

Acc No.: 52934 Call No.: 658.4 ISBN: 9780143466345

Summary: The world of work, the way we work and we, who work, will continue to evolve. From commuting to large industrial units, to operating from structured cabins and now from homes—every change has brought its set of challenges. It has become imperative for humans to be at the forefront of it. Human at Work delves into these challenges, the rapid technological advances, digital transformation and economic uncertainties that serve as opportunities and threats for the future of work. These developments call for agile leadership, ethical decision-making and commitment to continuous innovation in an ever-shifting landscape. Each chapter of this book guides business leader into developing a human-centric approach to the changing dynamics of the workplace. It also highlights the need for companies to ensure team collaboration and foster employee well-being while being inclusive and sustainable. Filled with useful cases and practical exercises by seasoned HR veteran Richard Lobo, this book is an excellent resource for anyone on how to better the future of the human at work.

Seeing around corners: how to spot inflection points in business before they happen by McGrath, Rita

Mariner Books 2021

Acc No.: 52899 Call No.: 658.4012 ISBN: 9780358646525

Summary: The first prescriptive, innovative guide to seeing inflection points before they happen--and how to harness these disruptive influences to give your company a strategic advantage. Paradigmatic shifts in the business landscape, known as inflection points, can either create new, entrepreneurial opportunities (see Amazon and Netflix) or they can lead to devastating consequences (e.g., Blockbuster and Toys R Us). Only those leaders who can "see around corners"--that is, spot the disruptive inflection points developing before they hit--are poised to succeed in this market. Columbia Business School Professor and corporate consultant Rita McGrath contends that inflection points, though they may seem sudden, are not random. Every seemingly overnight shift is the final stage of a process that has been subtly building for some time. Armed with the right strategies and tools, smart businesses can see these inflection points coming and use them to gain a competitive advantage. Seeing Around Corners is the first hands-on guide to anticipating, understanding, and capitalizing on the inflection points shaping the marketplace.

How to be sustainable: business strategies for leading change by Taticchi, Paolo

Kogan Page 2025

Acc No.: 52914 Call No.: 658.4012 ISBN: 9781398618527

Summary: The climate crisis is the greatest challenge facing our world, so it's vital that all businesses step forward and lead the charge. Sustainability Heroes uncovers the strategies that lead to sustainable success. While over 90% of business leaders recognise the importance of sustainability, only 60% have a strategy in place. And many of these strategies are inefficient, ineffective or simply don't go far enough to combat climate change. Leading sustainability expert Paolo Taticchi has interviewed some of the world's leading Chief Sustainability Officers from businesses including Microsoft, Deloitte and Hitachi. He draws upon these expert insights to explore the impact and significance of sustainability in business, before offering practical strategies that will allow you and your business to make a positive impact.

The venture imperative: a new model for corporate innovation by Heidi Mason, Heidi

Harvard Business Review Press 2002

Acc No.: 52909 Call No.: 658.4063 ISBN: 9781578513352

Summary: The Venture Imperative is strongly practical in orientation. A must-read for those serious about launching a corporate venturing unit within their own company." Vince Barabba, General Manager, Corporate Strategy and Knowledge Development, General Motors Corporation Innovation has become a game of corporate life or death: Produce and market successful new ideas, and a company thrives; ride competitors' coattails, and the company eventually falls by the wayside. Yet continuous innovation has traditionally been as risky and difficult as it is essential. How can corporations create an environment that has enough freedom to allow for innovation, while providing enough structure to control risk? In this ground-breaking book, Heidi Mason and Tim Rohner-leading voices in venture strategy-prove that corporate venturing is the best way to intelligently and successfully test and launch innovative corporate growth strategies. Venturing drives corporate strategy by harnessing internal and external innovation, while limiting financial risks. The process starts with the right environment: The Venture Business Office-a group that directly connects individual ventures to the parent investor and the larger venture community.

Using comprehensive analysis of employees across 170-plus companies, Pavan Soni has created a necessary guide that provides appropriate tools and frameworks to help you navigate your career successfully. Design Your Career will help you make conscious choices at your workplace by ably matching your talent and needs. This book is a key resource for anyone hoping to achieve well-designed utilization of time and talent in the pursuit of a worthwhile goal.

NEW ARRIVALS, DECEMBER 2025

The gym of leadership: insights to help you build your leadership muscles by Khandelwal, Anil K

Penguin Random House 2024

Acc No.: 52949 Call No.: 658.4092 ISBN: 9780143470571

Summary: We live in a volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous (VUCA) world that calls for a paradigm shift in the style of leadership. The new world needs leaders who are purposeful, agile, flexible, cooperative, humble and helpful. Leadership, therefore, is as much about soft skills as hard skills, and no leader can be successful without using the two in concert. In the Gym of Leadership, Anil Khandelwal, a proven transformational leader, advocates that building all-round leadership capabilities should be a high-priority agenda for those aspiring for growth. Taking a refreshing approach, he uses fitness work out as an analogy to motivate aspiring leaders to develop new-age leadership skills. According to the author, building leadership capabilities is akin to building physical and mental fitness since both require passion, dedication and discipline. A practical guide to leadership, this book focuses on the actual development and practice of specific skills. It primarily proposes eighteen foundational skills of leadership grouped into four sections, namely, 'understanding the self', 'emotional regulation', 'relationship management' and 'communication'. Authoritative and foregrounded in rigorous research, it promises to fill in the existing gap in the literature on leadership.

Distancing: how great leaders reframe to make better decisions by Marquet, L David

Penguin Business 2025

Acc No.: 52926 Call No.: 658.4092 ISBN: 9780241661659

Summary: Be yourself. Be fully present. Be in the moment. That is the message we hear constantly. Yet, the biggest obstacle to making wiser, more successful decisions is often... ourselves. Our limited perspective biases our choices, leading us to defend past actions rather than seek better alternatives. We need to step outside our narrow view and gain an objective, fresh perspective. In other words, we need a coach.

Build better brains: a leader's guide to the world of neuroscience by Muttke, Martina

Business Expert Press 2020

Acc No.: 52902 Call No.: 658.4092 ISBN: 9781952538568

Summary: The exciting news is that leadership has become measurable in the brain. This opens a new perspective on "the biology of leadership". Have you ever wished to discover what lies inside of the box on top of your head? Are you aware that by reading this book you will forever change your brain, because your brain is an eternal construction site? Did you know that we have three brains? One brain in the brain, one in the heart, one in the gut? With Millennials and Generation Z becoming most of our workforce, the way we think about leadership is changing. Advances in neuroscience can prepare leaders to build a culture of trust and purpose for themselves and their teams. Build Better Brains is neither a leadership book nor a book on neuroscience. It merges the best of the two worlds to serve a new type of leader emerging with contemporary organizations.

Customer driven change: what Your customers know, your employees think, your managers overlook by Taylor, Bud

Brown Books Publishing Group 2009

Acc No.: 52905 Call No.: 658.812 ISBN: 9781934812402

Summary: All change theories and approaches agree on two essential ingredients: committed leaders and engaged employees. Most would say that if you have these, you will have successful change—but how do you get them? This is the point where change recipes often come up short. How do you encourage the commitment and engagement needed in your organization to survive reorganization, acquire a hostile competitor, establish a refreshed workforce strategy, or endure the necessary cutbacks during a recession? How do you get people out of their normal routine and involved in something bigger than themselves or their function? Customers, that's how! By thinking about change from the customer's point of view, you will create sustained commitment and engagement within your organization faster than with any other approach. By encouraging leaders and employees to adopt a cohesive perspective, you will unlock the world's most powerful change strategy uniting leaders and employees through their customers.

Kogan Page 2025

Acc No.: 52911 Call No.: 658.827 ISBN: 9781398618992

Summary: In a world of relentless change and pervasive uncertainty, brands can only thrive if they become adept at reading and responding to cultural currents and signals. Today, cultural relevance is not just a marketing output, but a foundational element of successful contemporary business strategy. Brands no longer operate in a vacuum; instead, they are active participants in a global dialogue impacting culture and communities, both geographical and through fandoms. This book equips leaders with the tools to navigate this rapidly evolving business landscape, embracing uncertainty and harnessing cultural relevance to drive growth. Covering everything from marketing to commerce, innovation and creativity, political sensitivity and technology transformations all the way to diversity and inclusion, environmental consciousness and how to credibly leverage the influence of cultural voices, this book enables you to build a culture-led growth strategy and create a resilient brand.

The future of purpose-driven branding: signature programs that impact and inspire both business and society by Aaker, David A

Morgan James Publishing 2023

Acc No.: 52890-52891 Call No.: 658.827 ISBN: 9781631959882

Summary: Today's firms need a social effort that is serious and impactful to be relevant. It's not enough to make a commitment to reduce energy or have an ad hoc unbranded budget for grants and volunteering; the world needs their resources and agility to address existential threats in society, and their customers (and employees) demand it. As an influential voice in branding and market connection, David Aaker examines how businesses can adapt their approaches for social betterment in The Future of Purpose-Driven Branding: Signature Programs for Social Impact, Relevance, & Business Enhancement. According to Aaker, the future of branding demands that businesses: Create a purpose and culture that nurtures social and environmental efforts. Create signature programs to carry that message. Build strong signature brands in part with five branding "Must Dos." Use the signature brands to advance a business to get their endorsement and access to their resources.

Global marketing: understanding marketing in a globalized business environment by Millward, Helen Amy

Kogan Page 2025

Acc No.: 52913 Call No.: 658.848 ISBN: 9781398620094

Summary: Global Marketing provides students with an understanding of how marketing works in today's globalized business landscape, covering key topics, theories and applications. Taking a holistic approach to the subject, this textbook includes chapters on global communications, cultural convergence and divergence and production considerations. There are discussions of standardization vs differentiation, cultural universals, brand equity and the encoding of marketing messaging. Crucially, it explores these topics from multiple stakeholder perspectives, providing further insight into how theories, when used in practice, may have different implications. Ethical considerations of marketing internationally are covered extensively, alongside important theoretical debates and critiques to support critical thinking. Global Marketing includes pedagogical features such as learning outcomes, end of chapter exercise questions and activities for students.

Public speaking with confidence: how to overcome anxiety and deliver unforgettable presentations by Humm, Philipp

Penguin Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52944 Call No.: 808.51 ISBN: 9780143473107

Summary: You've probably tried to speak in public a few times before. Maybe your heart started racing, you had difficulty breathing, or you forgot what you wanted to say. It sucks, right?

For years, speaking in public was the single thing I was most afraid of. Until I discovered the techniques you're about to learn. In this book, you'll master the techniques that have helped me overcome my fear of public speaking and feel excited to speak in public. They are the same techniques I used to prepare for my TEDx talk and that I taught in my workshops with companies including Google, Oracle, ASICS, Visa, Salesforce, Metlife, and E.ON.

Some of the exercises are a bit unconventional. Some are weird. But they're also the most effective in helping you feel confident about speaking in public. So are you ready to overcome your anxiety and feel excited to speak in public?

Bring the house down by Runcie, Charlotte

The Borough Press 2025

Acc No.: 52888 Call No.: 823 ISBN: 9780008688011

Summary: Theatre critic Alex Lyons made his name from his brutal, brilliant reviews. So when he sees Hayley Sinclair's dismal one-woman show at the Edinburgh Fringe, he thinks nothing of dashing off another of his trademark one-star pans for the newspaper. He also thinks nothing of taking her home after the performance, failing at any point to mention who he is. What he doesn't expect is for Hayley to revamp her show into a review of Alex's entire life, exposing what an awful person he really is. Worse, the show is a smash hit, and Alex is about to become national news. But can Hayley bring the establishment down without taking herself with it?

Sky daddy: a novel by Folk, Kate

Random House 2025

Acc No.: 52887 Call No.: 823 ISBN: 9780593978672

Summary: "Linda's life may appear drab to those around her: She makes $20 an hour as a content moderator, flagging comments that violate a tech conglomerate's terms and conditions. Every night, she returns to the windowless room she rents in a garage on the outskirts of San Francisco. But once a month, she indulges her true passion: taking the AirTrain to SFO for a clandestine meeting on the cheapest flight out that night. Linda isn't interested in pilots, though. She has a thing for planes; their intelligent windscreens, comely slats, and rumbling turbulence make her feel a way that no man ever could. In fact, she desperately believes her destiny is to marry one by uniting their souls for eternity in what the rest of us may vulgarly refer to as a plane crash-the fatal tailspin caused by the plane's uncontrollable desire for her. Linda's unusual proclivities distance her from the rest of humanity, so she's surprised and pleased when her charismatic work friend, Karina, invites her to a quarterly Vision Board Brunch. She wants to hasten her romantic fate through manifestation, but as her vision boards start coming true a bit too literally, Linda must choose between being her authentic self or abandoning her destiny for a more "normal" life"

Summary: After a failed love, a man named Gil moves from New York to Arizona and discovers his neighbours have a house with a wall made entirely made of glass. Soon their lives begin to mesh. In this warmly textured, drily funny, and philosophical account of Gil's unexpected devotion to new family and the wildlife that surrounds their desert home, Lydia Millet explores the uncanny territory where the self ends and community begins. Dinosaurs is an emotionally moving and intellectually resonant novel that asks: In the shadow of existential threat, where does hope live?

The slip: a novel by Schaefer, Lucas

Simon & Schuster 2025

Acc No.: 52889 Call No.: 823 ISBN: 9781668030707

Summary: Austin, Texas: It's the summer of 1998, and Nathaniel Rothstein has vanished without a trace. His uncle Bob Alexander, who was supposed to be looking after him for the summer, had long thought the boy a bit odd, but Nathaniel appeared to be maturing in his sixteenth year-taking up boxing at Terry Tucker's Boxing Gym and volunteering at the local assisted living center. Until he disappeared, Nathaniel had seemed happier, more confident-tanner, even. Across the city, Charles Rex, now going by simply "X," has been undergoing a teenage transformation of his own, trolling the phone sex hotline that his mother works day and night, seeking an outlet for everything that feels wrong about his body, looking for intimacy and acceptance in a culture that denies him both.

India's finance ministers: volume 3, different strokes 1998-2014 by Bhattacharya, A K

Penguin Business 2025

Acc No.: 52937 Call No.: 920 ISBN: 9780143475286

Summary: This is the third volume in the series of books on India's finance ministers, which capture the story of India's economic policies through the lens of the Union government's budget initiatives since 1947.

The first volume covered the period of thirty years from India's Independence to the end of the Emergency in 1977. The second volume covered the twenty-one years from the formation of the first non-Congress government in India in 1977 to 1998, when the short tenure of the coalition government led by United Front ended. The present volume covers a period of sixteen years that saw just four finance ministers present Union budgets and steer their respective government's economic policies through them.

A fascinating account of economic policymaking, the book analyses the role of India's finance ministers in the management of the Indian economy during the era of coalition politics. It also highlights the significant difference these ministers made to the policy evolution of the government and, thus, left an indelible mark on the psyche of Indian citizens. It attempts to measure the impact of their decisions not only on India's economic system but also on its political system, and to what extent their decisions were influenced by their socio-economic backgrounds. Foregrounded in rigorous research and full of interesting anecdotes, the book is the first in-depth account of the crucial role the finance minister plays in the functioning of India's economy.

The mango tree: a memoir of fruit Florida and felony by Tometich, Annabelle

Little, Brown and Company 2025

Acc No.: 52893 Call No.: 920 ISBN: 9780316540322

Summary: When journalist Annabelle Tometich picks up the phone one June morning, she isn't expecting a collect call from an inmate at the Lee County Jail. And when she accepts, she certainly isn't prepared to hear her mother's voice on the other end of the line. However, explaining the situation to her younger siblings afterwards was easy; all she had to say was, 'Mom shot at some guy. He was messing with her mangoes.' They immediately understood. Answering the questions of the breaking-news reporter--at the same newspaper where Annabelle worked as a restaurant critic--proved more difficult. Annabelle decided to go with a variation of the truth: it was complicated. So begins The Mango Tree, a poignant and deceptively entertaining memoir of growing up as a mixed-race Filipina 'nobody' in suburban Florida as Annabelle traces the roots of her upbringing--all the while reckoning with her erratic father's untimely death in a Fort Myers motel, her fiery mother's bitter yearning for the country she left behind, and her own journey in the pursuit of belonging.

G-Man: J, Edgar Hoover and the making of the American century by Gage, Beverly

Penguin Books 2023

Acc No.: 52895 Call No.: 920 ISBN: 9780593511466

Summary: A major new biography of J Edgar Hoover that draws from never-before-seen sources to create a ground-breaking portrait of a colossus who dominated half a century of American history and planted the seeds for much of today's conservative political landscape. We remember him as a bulldog--squat frame, bulging wide-set eyes, fearsome jowls--but in 1924, when he became director of the FBI, he had been the trim, dazzling wunderkind of the administrative state, buzzing with energy and big ideas for reform. He transformed a failing law-enforcement backwater, riddled with scandal, into a modern machine. He believed in the power of the federal government to do great things for the nation and its citizens. He also believed that certain people--many of them communists or racial minorities or both-- did not deserve to be included in that American project. Hoover rose to power and then stayed there, decade after decade, using the tools of state to create a personal fiefdom unrivalled in U.S. history.

Fortune seekers: a business history of the Nattukottai Chettiar by Mahadevan, Raman

Penguin Business 2025

Acc No.: 52931 Call No.: 920 ISBN: 9780670084869

Summary: Nattukottai Chettiar were the most prominent business community from Tamil region and this book captures their spirit of enterprise that led many of them to seek their fortunes overseas. It's a story that connects South India, Burma, and South-East Asia across the Bay of Bengal and equally one that spans the British imperial era and that of the modern nation state.

For students of history, business, and for modern entrepreneurs, the book has valuable lessons on the importance of diversifying into promising investment opportunities and gauging the economic winds of change.

Jamsetji Tata: powerful learnings for corporate success by Gopalakrishnan, R

Penguin Business 2024

Acc No.: 52938 Call No.: 920 ISBN: 9780670098071

Summary: Jamsetji Tata pioneered modern Indian industry. He has been a key catalyst in the economic growth and development of the country.

From Empress Mills to the Iron and Steel Plant, from the establishment of Indian Institute of Science to the building of the Taj Mahal Hotel, Jamsetji's vision made India stand tall. In this carefully researched account, R Gopalakrishnan and Harish Bhat provide insights into the entrepreneurial principles of Jamsetji that helped create such a successful and enduring enterprise.

His contribution and that of his successors has led to the institutionalization of Tata values. Over the decades, through hard work, determination, and a consistent vision, he and his successors have embedded these values in the organization, which has stood the test of time and has consistently contributed to the country's industrial development. The book takes readers into the heart of this amazing story and what has made it possible.

Interwoven with engaging real-life stories about iconic leaders of the Tata Group, and interesting anecdotes that went into the making of India's popular brands such as Tata Tea, Tata Steel, Tata Motors and Tanishq, this unique account brings alive the vision of Jamsetji Tata and tells us what we can learn from it.
